SO ORDERED. Clarence Brieant, U.S.D.J.
Dated: August 20, 2007

Re: United States v. Gregory Dean
07 Cr. 647(CLB)

Dear Judge Brieant:

This letter requests an adjournment of Mr. Dean's pre-trial conference currently scheduled for September 5, 2007, at 10:15 a.m. The government consent's to this request and we waive the time under the Speedy Trial Act.

Mr. Dean was presented on a complaint on May 31, 2007. On June 17, 2007, he was arraigned on a One Count Information charging a violation of Title 18 U.S.C. § 2252(a)(5)(B), the possession of child pornography. Mr. Dean was released on bail at his initial appearance and is in compliance with his bail conditions. On August 8, 2007, this office submitted a letter to the government requesting leniency. To date this request is remains pending. Additionally, Mr. Dean underwent a psych-sexual evaluation. We have not yet received the report on this evaluation. Therefore, we request a one month adjournment for the conference.

Your attention to this request is most appreciated.

Sincerely Yours,

Susanne Brody
